also be double tracked between King and Beretania streets. According to the arrangements now on the books there will be a swinging about of several of the lines by which most of the lines will run across the city. The Emma street cars will come down Alakea, run north on King and up Liliha street to the end. The western terminal point of the Hotel and Waiulua line will be opposite the O. R. & L. station.

While making this proposed change proper thing and that part of the the cars on Alakea street will be taken off and the Punahou line will do the work of carrying passengers to the waterfront, following the rails that are now laid from the end of Fort street to the Iron Works.

It is understood that the Rapid Transit Company stands ready to extend the rails to the entrance of the Country Club as soon as Nuuanu street has been widened, according to agreement and this seems to be in a fair way of materializing shortly. The material for the work is already on hand or been ordered.

The Pearl Harbor extension has been laid on the table for the remainder of the year as the transit company thinks the conditions desired by the United States government not the Previous mention has been made of the larger boilers to be installed and the increase of the rolling stock in the way of ten new sixty-passenger cars.

It is estimated that the improvements contemplated will represent an outlay of about $200,000.

Slaughtering Clearance of ## Corsets

WE have definitely decided to close out every pair of Corsets in stock excepting the celebrated "Madame Irene" and "G-D Justrite" Corsets. We have taken from our shelves about 350 pairs of Corsets in various styles, consisting principally of "R. & G." and "W. B." makes. These will be closed out ridiculously cheap. We have not got every size in all shapes, but there are all sizes in the entire line.

The prices here given should close out the lot in short order:

$1.25 and $1.50 R. & G. Corsets, at	50c pair
$1.75 and $2 R. & G. Corsets, at	75c pair
$2.25 and $2.50 R. & G. Corsets, at	$1.00 pair
$1.25 and $1.5
